Hunters Eagerly Awaiting Duck Season, Oct. 15

Increase in Ducks, Mudhens Promises Good Sport This Year

A thirty per cent increase in ducks, coupled with the fact that there seem to be lots of mudhens this year, promises good bags for the hunters who are looking forward with eagerness to the start of the season here Oct. 15. "Something new has been added" in the hunting regulations, which this year permit the hunters to start shoot one half-hour before sunrise. They can shoot until sunset.

Formerly, shooting started at sunrise or one-half hour later, and continued until 4 o'clock.

According to resort owners, and to hunters who have stopped in for pre-season conferences at Louis Nielsen's Barbecue, corner of Grass Lake road and Highway 59, this should be an outstanding season.

Nielsen, himself an ardent sportsman, states that there seem to be lots of blue wing teal, mallard and pin tails included in the general increase in all species of ducks. Interest is keen in duck hunting this year, he says, and he has already received many requests for information from the informal "directory service" he maintains with regard to hunting regulations, etc.

Hunters began putting up their blinds and putting their boats in shape early this year—spurred on, no doubt, by the fact that the birds are famously good eating—with no ration points.

Pheasant Season Nov. 11-20
The shooting season for Illinois upland game will open Thursday, Nov. 11.

For pheasants, the open season will run through November 20, with a bag limit of two cock pheasants a day, and possession limit of six.

The open season on quail will run from November 11 to December 11, inclusive, with a limit of twelve a day, and 36 in possession after the third day.

The rabbit shooting season will extend from November 11 to January 31, with the bag limit ten a day, and 20 in possession.

Katherine Smith Is Bride of Sergeant

Now making their home at Fort Custer, Mich., where the bridegroom is stationed, are the former Miss Katherine Smith and Sgt. Joseph Kanka, whose marriage took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in St. John's Lutheran church, Libertyville, Ill.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith, Grass Lake road, wore white satin with a shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

Kathleen Balnek of Evanston, who attended the bride, was gowned similarly.

First Sergeant Gordon E. Arnold of Fort Custer acted as best man.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kanka, Berwyn, Ill.

The bride was recently honored with a shower given by two of her sisters, Mrs. Margaret Walsh and Mrs. William Dunworth. Another sister, Mrs. Henry Walther, with her husband, Lt. Walther, and their son, Henry, Jr., was able to come here from Alabama.

Barnard School Has Active Baseball Team

Two wins and one loss have been marked up so far by the newly organized baseball team of Barnard school, Salem township, near Voltz lake.

A game with Pikeville Tuesday resulted in a 28-12 victory for Barnard. However, an encounter with Bristol State Graded school was an 11-15 defeat. One with Herzog (Racine county) saw Barnard running up a score of 64 as compared with Herzog's 17. Sunday afternoon there will be another game, at 2 o'clock at Bristol Corners.

Lease for Post Office Quarters Is Being Sought

The lease will run five or ten years.

Mail Gifts to Service Men Immediately, Advice

Only one-fourth of the volume of Christmas mail for service men which has been expected has been received so far, Postmaster Roy Kufalk announces.

"Apparently the public has not been impressed with the necessity of mailing gift parcels as far in advance as possible of Oct. 15 for the Army and Nov. 1 for the Navy," he observes. "It was expected that the relatives and friends would mail their packages to the service men and women in the more distant stations in the opening days of the mailing period," he says. "We must remember that arms, munitions and supplies take precedence over gifts in the allotment of shipping space. It is imperative that those who plan to send gifts do so at once."

Clayton G. King Funeral Services Held Here Tues.

Former Antioch Man Passes Away at Riverside, Aged 70 Years

Clayton George King, 70, who for many years was engaged in the occupation of farming in the vicinity of Antioch, died Saturday evening at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Sidney Van Tuyl, Riverside, Ill.

Christian Science services were held at the Strang Funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Theresa Lewis as reader. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

After his retirement from farming 11 or 12 years ago, he entered the employ of the Wrisley manufacturing company in Chicago, and worked for them up to August 1. He passed his 70th birthday anniversary Aug. 9.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Frank (Pearl) Powles of Antioch; Mrs. Sidney (Claribel) Van Tuyl, Riverside; Mrs. Amos (Ethel) Tahlier, Iron Mountain, Mich., and three sons, Clarence King of Salem; Raymond, Chicago, and Staff Sgt. Wilson King, overseas, and two grandchildren.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. William A. Thompson of Channel Lake; a niece in Kenosha, and a niece and a nephew in Chicago.

His wife and a daughter, Lucille, preceded him in death, as did also two sisters and a brother.

OBSERVER

"I hate to start again, but I want to keep Wilmot on the map so far as Antioch News correspondence is concerned"—That is about the way Miss Grace Carey expressed her sentiments in a little note to us the other day, letting us know that although Mrs. Herbert Sarbacher (who has conscientiously and ably edited the Wilmot items since Miss Carey gave up this work some time ago) will no longer be able to continue with it, the News will still have a Wilmot correspondent. Miss Carey has for many years been an outstanding correspondent, working for a number of publications in this region. It is fitting at this time that we should express our appreciation to Mrs. Sarbacher for her fine work, and that we should also say, "It's grand to have you back again, Grace!"

Incidentally, our hat is always off to our editors of local items from the various localities served by the Antioch News. There's a lot of pleasure and a lot of work connected with digging up all those items, week in and week out, and year in and year out. But we never quite appreciated how much they meant to our readers until we started getting letters back from the boys (and girls) who are away in the armed services. "Just like a second letter from home," is the way some of them put it.

"The little kindergartners are the ones who give me a real thrill," said one beaming on-looker watching Antioch Grade school youngsters receive their weekly gift of an ice cream cone at Reeves' Walgreen drug store the other day. For many years S. E. Reeves, the former proprietor, had made it his custom each week to give the children of the school an ice cream cone apiece. In spite of the ice cream shortage, the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. George (Helen) Borovicka, have made it a point to see that the children were not disappointed. Since the establishment of the kindergarten at the school, the number of youngsters receiving the cones has been increased. A teacher accompanies the tiny tots to the store. The others are escorted by patrol men.

We hate to break the news, folks, but we've been 'browsing around again, and our scissors are working overtime.

Among other things, we see where the eminent columnist, S. Burton Heath, quotes a warning from the American Red Cross to relatives and friends of missing service men not to trust enemy broadcasts which purport to give information about prisoners of war.

Seize—"False information is short-waved, as part of Axis propaganda, along with accurate data. Sometimes the inaccuracy is unintentional; sometimes deliberate, for the purpose of injuring American morale."

"All such broadcasts are monitored by the Red Cross and checked against other sources of information, so that when you hear from the Provost Marshal's office you get not what the Axis would like you to believe, but the most accurate facts that can be assembled."

SOMETHING'S GOT TO BE DONE

News of the Boys in Service

Pfc. William Roche and his bride, the former Miss Zellie Jollie of Charleston, S. C., arrived here Saturday night for a visit with the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Anna Roche, Petite lake. Their marriage took place July 14 in St. Patrick's church, Charleston. The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Jollie of Conway, C. S., was attended by Mrs. Clifford H. Bell of Charleston. The bridegroom's "buddy," George Wagner of Chicago, for whom he acted as best man at the latter's wedding a year ago in July, when they were at Denver, Colo., acted as best man on this occasion. Pvt. and Mrs. Roche are living about two blocks from the Camp Stoney military reservation. Pvt. Roche is now a trumpeter in the military band. He is at present enjoying a 16-day furlough.

Cpl. Louis L. Oetting, overseas in the Atlantic area, has been given a new APO address. Oetting, who is from Trevor, will be remembered by many here as a former employee of the Jefferson Ice company.

The two Patrick boys of Salem, Wis., Robert and Ray, have both been made corporals. Robert, who is overseas with an infantry battalion, was for a long time stationed in Iceland, but is now in England. Ray is in the air corps. Both look for "Ma's" column in the News first thing, they report. (Mrs. Byron Patrick is the Salem News correspondent.)

"Of course I am homesick," Pvt. Melvin Skinner writes from somewhere in England "to inform us that he is O. K. 'Hop' that you're all well and happy at home. Tell everybody I said hello."

A post card from S/Sgt. Chester B. Runyard, in service in the Pacific area, advises us of a change of address.

Second Lieutenant Lawrence N. Johnson, formerly of Route 2, care Edw. Bachman, Antioch, has successfully completed a special course of instruction at the Signal Corps' school at Camp Murphy, Fla.

William Lubkeman, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Lubkeman, Route 2, left Wednesday for the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where he will enter an army A-12 technical training course. When he passes his eighteenth birthday anniversary, in about three months, he will be privileged to wear the army uniform.

"I have heard a lot about the great city of Brooklyn, but it seems just like every other city except for the way everyone talks," Allen Latham, F 1/c, (continued on page 5)

Bond Drive Chairmen Ask That Remaining Pledges Be Redeemed

Antioch's actual purchases of war bonds and stamps, exclusive of pledges still to be fulfilled, which will raise the total considerably, it is believed, amounted Saturday to $75,446.01.

This represents the combined sales of the postoffice, First National bank and State Bank of Antioch, all of which co-operated in the drive.

Since pledges can be redeemed up to Oct. 16, it is expected that the actual purchases credited to the drive may well exceed the $89,600 quota set.

Township chairman Otto S. Klass, and Campaign Chairman Edward C. Jacobs have expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the responses to the drive. They ask that all persons with pledges which have not as yet been redeemed purchase their bonds as soon as possible, so that the records can be cleared.

Woman's Clubs of County Will Meet Here October 18

Forty members of the Antioch Women's club attended a 1 o'clock dessert-luncheon and program at the first meeting of the year, Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ed. F. Vos.

The readings, "Mamma's Bank Account" and "Yesterday's Children," were given by Miss Laurene Hoppe.

Plans for a meeting of the Lake County Federation of Women's clubs, to which the Antioch organization will be hostess Monday, Oct. 18, were discussed in the business session.

The county meeting will be held in the parish hall of St. Peter's church, at 11 a. m. A board meeting will precede it at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Russell Hutchins, president of the Lake presidents and other officers of the various local clubs, as well as their delegates, attend.

Reservations for the light luncheon which will be served by members of the Antioch club at 12:30 may be made with Mrs. John Brogan, president.

Persons, judge of the Lake county court, will speak in the morning session, on "Juvenile Delinquency."

The club has organized a choral group which will be open to all members interested. It will rehearse at 4:30 o'clock after the regular meetings, with Hans von Holwede as director.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berg were in Chicago Monday on business.

Hillside Avenue Improvement to Be Postponed

May Be Part of Village's Post-War Employment Program

Improvement and widening of Hillside avenue will be postponed probably until after the war, it was decided at a meeting of the Antioch village council Tuesday evening.

Engineers' estimates of the cost of the work made it considerably higher than the figures upon which Village President George B. Bartlett and the council had based their previous plans.

It was also observed, during discussion of the project, that its postponement would fit into the programs the various municipalities are being asked to make for post-war employment, and would permit the village to take advantage of lower costs for materials.

It was felt that at the present time, contractors' equipment is in great demand for war work, and that it would be inadvisable to attempt to compete for its services.

Funds Will Accumulate
It had been planned to use funds accumulated to the village's credit in gas tax returns. However, these funds will continue to accumulate, and a larger sum will be available at the close of the war.

The village will send representatives to the thirtieth annual convention of the Illinois Municipal league Oct. 13-14, it was decided. Reservations have already been made for four members of the council, and other members may also plan on attending.

The Soo line has notified the village that it is willing to give permission for digging out the ditch along the Wilmot spur, and that it is having an agreement drawn up for this purpose, according to a letter read at the meeting.

Living Within Our

(Government's) Income

A long time ago, one of Charles Dickens' immortal characters pointed out, in words which we cannot recall at this moment, the fact that living a little bit over your income may mean misery; living a little bit under it generally means a clear mind and happiness.

So far as we can see, our government has been living far beyond its income for quite a long time. Granted, that a part of this expense has been due to wartime conditions. Nevertheless, we feel that some of it has been due to mismanagement, to political "grabs" and "deals," and—that quite a large part of it has been just plain unnecessary spending.

We are old-fashioned enough to believe that everything that is spent must be earned somehow, somewhere, sometime. And it's people like you and me, brother, who are going to have to dig down and scratch dirt and earn it.

Don't make any mistake about it—cutting out the UNNECESSARY government spending RIGHT NOW isn't going to hurt the war effort. Wasted money and wasted effort aren't things that will bring victory. But money and effort wisely used WILL bring it—and sooner.

Our government was never planned with the idea of furnishing a few people with nice jobs. It WAS planned with the idea of performing certain necessary functions which we, as individuals, would find it difficult to do.

Contrary to general belief, there are many honest government officials, many highly necessary government employees, and many extremely necessary government expenses.

The fact that we do have them is all the more reason why we should see to it that the unnecessary and undesirable expenses and employees are eliminated. We are going to have a hard enough job to pay for the ones that are needed, without continuing to carry additional burdens.

And we may as well start the work of cleaning house right now, from the local government right on up through the federal government. The sooner we put through the federal government, the better chance we have of less spending eliminated, the better chance we have of keeping this the kind of a country our fighting men will want to come back to.

We can't hate the President, we can't blame the "bureaucrats," we can't tax our legislators or our judiciary for faults that in the final analysis may be due to our own heedlessness and lack of interest. So long as people are human beings there will always be those who will connive to fatten themselves at the government trough.

While our form of government may not be perfect, it's just about the fairest and most workable kind of government that has ever been put into practice to date. Let's try to cut out the frills, wherever this can be done, and get down to the fundamentals. We could do a lot with the man-power and money-power saved.

The Pleasure Is Ours, Too

During the past two years, the Antioch News and the local American Legion post has been co-operating in sending this newspaper to men and women from this region who are in the armed forces.

Letters have come in from all over the world telling how much the boys have enjoyed receiving the home town news. From time to time we have printed excerpts in the "Boys in Service" column. We wish we could share these letters with our readers to a greater extent. They are heart-warming. We know that not one penny which the Legion has used for bringing cheer to the boys in the service, not one tiny item printed in the paper, has gone unappreciated.

We are sure that these letters have meant a great deal to the Legionnaires, and we know that the greetings and occasional visits from those engaged in serving our country have meant much to the News staff.

So, from all of us at home to all those in the armed services, wherever they may be, and inadequate though our words may be, it seems to us that this is as good a time as any for us to say, "Thank you! It has been a pleasure!"

"The flowers are for yesterday and the monuments for tomorrow."

"I'd like to tell you what the Japs did to some friends of mine"

"I AM LIEUTENANT (j. g.) ANN B. BERNATITUS, U. S. N.—a nurse, back from Bataan. I have a message for you . . .

"Those American boys—who fought for you with their backs to the wall, waiting for help that never reached them—came from the land of plenty. But when their lives were at stake, all they had was . . . plenty of nothing!

"They were outnumbered, outgunned, and out-supplied. They were so short of ammunition that antiaircraft gunners often had to hold their fire until the enemy planes were on top of them. They were so short of bandages and gauze that we nurses had to wash out the old ones and use them again.

"But they were never short of courage. They never spoke of surrender. They just went on fighting, and hoping, and dying. And no sacrifice was ever too great.

"Let me give you an example. One terrible day on Bataan we had 285 patients on our operating tables in 8 hours—a new patient every two minutes of the day.

"A sailor was brought in with his abdomen blown to bits. He was a goner and I think he knew it. 'Doctor,' he asked, 'is there any hope at all?'

"The doctor wished to reassure him and replied, 'We'll do everything we can!' The sailor tried to roll over. 'Doc,' he begged, 'get me off this table and save one of those other fellows who still has a fighting chance.'

"That was the kind of men we had at Bataan. And they would want you to remember not only what they did, but what they did without.

"They would want you to remember it, but not with flowers and memorials. The flowers are for yesterday and the monuments for tomorrow.

"Remember them now—this month and every month—by buying War Bonds!

"Buy guns and planes and shells and ships and tanks—for those other countrymen of yours who are fighting so far from home. See to it that never again, any place in the world, will American fighting men be caught short as they were on Bataan! That never again will American wounded perish for the help your dollars might have sent!

"Certainly taxes are higher. Certainly the cost of living has gone up. But the men on Bataan were never ten-percenters!

"They gave everything they had. And now it's up to you to buy War Bonds not only if you can, but all you can! Please believe me, folks—that's the way the boys on Bataan would like to be remembered!"

"It's all yours," says this Yeoman 1/c as he turns over a batch of correspondence to the WAVE who is taking over his desk job. That they are both pleased is evident for he's now free to be assigned to active duty aboard one of Uncle Sam's ships, and she's in the Navy playing an important part in helping win the war.

As a Yeoman this WAVE is doing work for which her past experience best fits her. However, there are many other opportunities for girls who can qualify upon completion of their training period.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 3.

The Golden Text was, "If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8: 31).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the Lord, and there is none else" (Isaiah 45: 5, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the vast, forever, in the Science and truth of being, the only facts are Spirit and its innumerable creations . . . As God Himself is good and is Spirit, goodness and spirituality must be immortal . . . If goodness and spirituality are real, evil and materiality are unreal and cannot be the outcome of an infinite God, good . . . Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make—hence its unreality" (pp. 479, 277, 525).

News of the Boys

lets us know. "We have the best building for a barracks that I have ever seen in the navy. There is an excellent auditorium where Tommy Dorsey and his band will play this week. I see that several people from Antioch who are in the service have been here in New York. I guess it wasn't my luck to run across them."

Cpl. Robert Behler, who is stationed at Lowry Field No. 2, Denver, Colo., has been spending his furlough in Woodstock, visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Behler, and other relatives. He spent Wednesday in Antioch with Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Gaston. Cpl. Behler is a graduate of Antioch Township High School. Three of his four brothers are in the service. The fourth, Glenn, is attending school in Woodstock.

A surprise visit was paid to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zalatoris of Lake Marie by their son, William, who has been studying at the University of Toledo, Ohio, and is now stationed at San Antonio, Texas, in the air corps. Two weeks ago they were surprised by their son-in-law, George Cernak, pilot instructor at Barksdale Field, who flew here from Shreveport, La.

Lt. and Mrs. Lou J. Hughes (Jeanne Perry), send greetings from Enid, Okla., which, they say, is a nice little town and reminds them a lot of Waukegan, Ill. They plan to come home around the first of November. "After being away for two years, it's sure going to be swell to get back to good old Antioch, if only for a week or so, and then we are quite anxious for our baby to meet his 'Gram' and 'Gramp.' We noticed in the News that several of the Antioch boys are stationed at Fort Sill. We would like to have them drop in on us some time if they ever get any time off. We are only about 60 miles from Sill. —Yours for Victory."

Pvt. Theodore L. (Ted) Schock, Lake Villa, who is stationed at Boston, Mass., in the AST program, arrived home Sunday for a week's visit with his father, Emil P. Schock of Deep Lake. "Ted" dropped in at the News office Monday noon to say "hello."

Pvt. Robert M. Hunt is "going to a very swell school and taking a round of mechanics" at Tacoma, Wash., and observes that he has very few spare moments. "We have a lot of other work to do besides going to school," he says.

"When I was up in Massachusetts, I was in Boston walking down the street when someone hollered 'Swede!'" Pvt. William Johnson reminisces from Camp Johnston, Fla. "I turned around and there was Bob Gross. It sure was good to see someone from Antioch. I just received a letter that he had been home on furlough. He said it sure was dead in the 'Good Old Town.'"

Johnson also lets us know that he and a buddy were chased into their barracks by one of Florida's famous razorback hogs, which kept a vigil over the place all night. The mosquitoes he compares to dive bombers, but admits that "The swimming here is great—a lot better than Cape Cod. . . . We have been having good luck in fishing."

Norman Edwards, s 1/c, is moving around a bit. "Am now in Key West, Fla. I was in New London, Conn., for one week. Will later report to Philadelphia." He was previously stationed in New Jersey.

You'd know by the way she goes creaking about,

Peering down from all possible views At the two little feet thrust complacently out,

That Polly had on her new shoes.

They are neat, they are gay, they are buttoned up high,

And they are lined in a brilliant blue tint;

They are bright as the stars twinkling up in the sky,

Or a penny just out of the mint.

But it isn't for that she's so happy and proud

That she's almost unable to speak;

It's because they give out such a charmingly loud—

Such a perfectly beautiful squeak.

Five ATHS Cheerleaders Elected by Student Body

(By Idal Maier)

On the morning of September 13, fourteen students (all girls) tried out for cheerleading in the gymnasium of the Antioch Township High School. Five were elected from this group to act as "boosters of morale" for the team. They are Shirley Harness, Louise Elms, Dottie Wilton, Mabel Lou Hunter, and Idal Maier.

Every Friday morning a "pep session" is held in the gymnasium. These sessions include little talks, solos, group singing and cheers in which both faculty and students participate. The sessions are led by the cheerleaders wearing cardinal and grey.

So far two sessions have been held. The first, held Friday, Sept. 17, was a rather short warm-up with a few cheers, talks, and group singing, but no solo singing.

Friday, the 24th, started off with some group singing followed by solos sung by Benny Drury, Lucille Kuhn, Joanne Saylor, and Olga Heinesman, all members of the Freshman class.

After the solos, announced by Coach Kroll and accompanied by Hans von Holwede, Bill Dow gave a short pep talk. This was followed by a few cheers and the pep session ended with the singing of "Antioch High" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Volleyball is the main sport this year, and a number of girls came out for practice last Thursday. Captains of the teams are Thelma Longley, Phyllis Stastny, Trutchen Yopp and Grace King.

Chemistry, And How! (They Study It at Antioch High School)

(By Judy Pregener)

"I've got mercury! I've got mercury!"

"Yeow! Look at the hydrogen coming!"

"Miss Bullis, I can't get oxygen from this sand."

"That black stuff doesn't taste like salt!"

Such are the remarks you might hear if you dropped into Chemistry class some morning. Along with the admonitions of Miss Bullis—"You break that test tube, and you'll be sorry."

Everyone in there knows it's possible to get "something" from something else, but when it happens to them personally, they are simply amazed. If there ever was a class of really fascinating adventures it's chemistry.

Of course we do make mistakes. Just the other day we were producing oxygen from sodium chlorate with some black powder (manganese dioxide) as a catalyst (helper). The directions said to filter the mixture and after the filtered liquid had evaporated, taste what was left—well one of the senior boys just skipped the whole middle step of evaporation and tasted the remainder after the liquid had been filtered (which was the black powder). He couldn't figure out why it didn't taste like salt.

We're still trying to persuade Miss Bullis to let us make some laughing gas. Confidentially we're getting nowhere fast; but if you ever see about twenty people laughing hysterically and falling asleep at the same time, you'll know we finally won her over to our side.

Sr. English Class Develops Modern Canterbury Tales

(By Billie May Runyard)

Included in the Fourth Year English course are selections from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales. One of the projects for the semester will be to create a character of any type, describe him thoroughly and then to write in poetry or prose the type of story he would be apt to tell.

The members of this class are now writing this modern parallel under the direction of Miss D. M. Culliton, High School librarian and English teacher.

Judging by the descriptions and stories already turned in, this project will be a surprisingly successful one. When complete the volume will be typed, bound in leather, and placed in the school library.

CAN VITAMINS CHANGE GRAY HAIR?

According to Good Housekeeping tests with Calcium Pantothenate on gray hair:

Age—did not seem to affect results. The earliest response occurred in a 50 year old; the latest in a 25 year old.

Color—began to appear near the roots of the hair. The color may not appear all over the head at the same time. Symmetrical areas, perhaps on the temples or the back of the head, may show traces of color first, after which the color will spread to other parts of the head.

Time—varied from 1 month to 6 months.

Results—88% of those tested had positive evidence of a return of some hair color.

Now thousands use GRAYVITA, which contains 10 mgm. of Calcium Pantothenate (the tested amount) PLUS 450 U.S.P. units of B<sub>12</sub>. Try GRAYVITA, 30 day supply, $1.50, 100 days, $4.00. Phone, write

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Allied Drive in Italy Gathers Speed As German Forces Face Encirclement; Aerial Blows Hit Japs in New Guinea; Battle Lines Drawn for Subsidy Fight

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

ITALY:

Take Big Air Base

Clinging stubbornly to the mountainous terrain, German small artillery and machine gunners slowed the progress of Lieut. Gen. Mark Clark's advancing Fifth army in the Naples area.

The whole German line facing the Fifth army, however, was in danger of encirclement, following the British Eighth army's capture of Foggia, 80 miles to the northeast. With the British threatening their rear, the Nazis could continue to hold out only so long as it would take Montgomery's men to cross the mountains and get behind their backs. Thus, a slow and bloody German withdrawal up the Italian mainland loomed.

Possession of Foggia gave the Allies a network of airfields from which they could blast southern Germany and the Balkans. From Foggia, Munich is 500 miles, Vienna with its airplane factories 465 miles, and the Ploesti oil fields of Rumania 580 miles.

Feet in Both Camps

With the restoration of Fascism in northern Italy under German auspices and the reported recognition of King Victor Emmanuel's government as a partner by the Allies, Italy apparently has stuck a foot in both camps.

Although the U. S. and Britain have refused to accept King Victor Emmanuel's government as an ally, they would welcome its assistance in helping throw the Germans from Italy, and thus give it rank as a military partner rather than a political partner. King Victor Emmanuel's government has been anxious to enter the Allied camp as a military partner, hoping that its co-operation would promote better peace terms for it.

Meanwhile, Benito Mussolini has been active in reforming his fallen Fascist regime in the north with German support. The Duce expects to raise an army to fight alongside the Nazis again, and he has promised to abolish the monarchy and establish a republican government in which the people, rather than the king, would have the final voice.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC:

On Move Again

Continuing Gen. Douglas MacArthur's policy of striking directly at enemy bases, Allied troops moved farther up the northeastern coastline of New Guinea to strike at the Japanese shipping port of Madang from the rear.

As the Allied forces worked their way up the Markham Valley toward Madang, other units bore down on Finschhafen, the important sea and air base which lay encircled from three sides. Australian troops landed by sea to the north of the Jap base encountered bitter resistance.

Despite heavy attacks by Jap bombers, more American troops were put ashore on Vella Lavella island in the Solomons. Reinforcement of the U. S. garrison there further tightened the noose around the last Jap holding of Kolombangara island in the area.

COAL:

Rationing Possible

As the OPA drew up plans for possible coal rationing, John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes' office found themselves in disagreement on the nation's supply.

A UMW spokesman declared that shortages of some by-product coals used by industry may exist, but production from other mines would more than make up for such scarcity. On the other hand, Ickes' office said weekly production would have to be increased if total supplies for the year were to approximate estimated needs of 600 million tons. It was said any increase was questionable in view of the constant loss of miners to other industries.

RATION POINTS:

Increased Sharply

Because of declining production, the office of price administration has raised the point value of butter from 12 to 16 points, the total allotment of red points per person each week. At the same time increases in points on nine items, and reductions in four others were announced.

The following increases have been ordered, based on the No. 2 size can: Apples, from 27 to 36 points; red sour cherries, 14 to 25; other cherries, 14 to 23; figs, 13 to 21; grapefruit juice, 10 to 18; plums and prunes, 7 to 15 points. Grape juice was raised from 3 to 6 points a quart. Asparagus and mushrooms also were elevated in point value.

Reductions were ordered for canned green or wax beans, down from 10 to 8 points for the No. 2 can; corn, from 16 to 13, except for whole kernel vacuum-packed, which went down from 20 to 18 points. Dried peas and lentils have been placed on the unrationed list.

John L. Lewis

OPA:

Dealers Licensed

Only farmers, fishermen and government agencies are exempt from federal licensing following an OPA order that all persons or concerns selling services or commodities under price controls are required to have licenses.

Most wholesalers and all retailers automatically were licensed, and the recent order was designed to take in canners, meat packers, auctioneers, brokers and other agents.

Licenses of operators found guilty of price control violations can be suspended for as long as 12 months.

NAZIS AND JAPS:

Strength Greater

Recent victories have failed to affect in any vital degree the strength of the enemy. With these words, Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson summed up statements of Gen. George C. Marshall, Gen. H. H. Arnold and Maj. Gen. George V. Strong to a gathering of ranking industrialists, labor leaders and newspaper executives.

As chief of military intelligence, General Strong revealed that the Nazis now have three times as many combat divisions as they had when they invaded Poland, and their domination of conquered countries has given them a labor force of 35 million workers. Despite recent heavy losses, the Nazis' air force exceeds its pre-war strength.

Japan can call upon four million soldiers for action, General Strong said, and, like the Nazis, her conquests have given her a vast pool of manpower and natural resources.

RUSSIA:

Last Ditch

The Dnieper river reached, the Nazis dug into its western banks in an attempt to throw back the charging Russian armies.

Failure to hold the line along the 750-mile Dnieper river would compel the Nazis to withdraw to prepared defenses on the 1939 pre-war boundaries.

No sooner had the Nazis reached the broad Dnieper, however, than Russian units forced their way across the river at several points, and paratroopers were dropped behind the German lines on the west bank. The Nazis sought to wipe out these detachments before they could establish footholds.

In the oil rich Caucasus, the last German troops were thrown out, relieving the threat to the Russian fuel supply. In all the Reds have regained over 300,000 miles of the territory overrun by the Nazis.

REAL ESTATE:

Enjoying Boomlet

Rising selling prices in 87 per cent of all cities in the country, and increased sales in 71 per cent, distinguish the current real estate market.

Realty is in greatest demand in cities with war-time industrial activity, and buyers' interest has not been dampened by ceilings on rentals. Inquiries for business properties have decreased because of goods shortages.

1. Don't play "tug of war" when you pull out an electric cord. Take a firm grasp on the plug itself, and pull it out. Never yank the plug from the outlet by using the cord as a handle.

2. When you're finished with appliances that have a detachable cord—your iron, coffee maker, toaster and other appliances—pull the wall plug out first, then the appliance plug.

3. Hang the cord loosely coiled over two hooks, and be sure it is free of knots or kinks.

Avoid bending the cord in the same place each time, and the insulation will last longer.

4. Don't "run" cords under rugs, where they will be subjected to the hard wear of walking on them.

Keep cords away from radiators and steam pipes. Never wrap them around hot appliances.
